DBI Interim Solutions

As talent becomes scarce, technology advances, and margins thin, organizations need real solutions that allow them to meet project timelines while protecting critical profit margins. To address this growing need we have launched DBI Interim Solutions. This is contract and contract-to-hire talent that can scale to any project, provide a real-time solution and conserve capital for your organization.

What is the benefit of DBI Interim Solution?

Real Money Savings! More flexibility! Reduced Risk!

No matter how large or complex your project may be, DBI Interim Solutions will assess your contingent workforce needs and support your vision to ensure projects are completed on time and within budget.

SEATTLE / CHICAGO / BOSTON

Contract Staffing Solution

Realize real cost management and lower hiring risk for your organization!

Contract staff is a smart alternative to hiring full-time employees. DBI Interim Solutions works with your organization to define the talent profile and requirements. We then leverage our extensive network to quickly find talent. These DBI Interim Solutions' employees then work within your organization until the project is complete or they are converted to full time within your organization.

DBI Interim Solutions does the heavy lifting of finding and payrolling the talent and providing full benefits. Your organization gets the productivity of world-class contract employees with none of the risk and overhead. A true win-win!

Managed Staffing Solution

DBI Interim Solutions provides your organization productive of world-class contract employees with none of the risk and overhead. Our goal is to help your organization realize low operating costs and reduce compliance liabilities.

How does it work?

If your organization has a strong team, or wants to build a strong team, but still needs to reduce overhead for other investments, DBI Interim Solutions can manage your staff by employing them as our own W2 employees. We can do this for a project or work with you as a true, ongoing managed-solutions provider. Your organization drives the duration, skill set, talent, etc. DBI Interim Solutions provides back-of-office services and manages the risk.

With our sound process, from initial requisition to consolidated invoicing, performance monitoring, and constant communication, our Managed Staffing Solution will provide greater visibility to your actual spending (and savings) on staff.

DBI Interim Solutions provides your organization a profession and qualified workforce while minimizing the risk and overhead to your organization.
